ABOUT JOHN POVEROMO:

NJ-based John Poveromo is a nationally touring standup comedian, cartoonist, writer, actor, and host of the popular pop-culture podcast Dystopia Tonight™. Through 200+ episodes and a variety of charity streams, he has interviewed everyone from emerging musicians to brilliant scientists and legendary entertainers -- like Tommy Chong, Lewis Black, and the late Ed Asner. John has made a name for himself as a highly entertaining and engaging host who authentically draws the most compelling stories out of his guests.

John's been featured in a variety of shows on FXX, SiriusXM, MTV, VH1, as well as the NY Times and Us Weekly. He is also the creator and star of "Duppet" -- a snarky puppet (think Statler and Waldorf meets Eeyore) representing a physical manifestation of his depression-- with a short film streaming on Amazon Prime and new digital episodes dropping soon. John also leverages his expertise with advocates and researchers exploring the connection between comedy and social impact.

As a comedian, writer, and host, John is highly sought after for his hot takes on pop-culture and politics, using humor to address some of the biggest social issues of our time. Armed with his razor-sharp wit and keen eye for BS, he takes on the establishment like a modern-day Don Quixote, tilting at the windmills of misinformation. With his fast-paced delivery, hilarious commentary on the absurdity of everyday life, and a glorious head of hair John is a favorite at clubs nationwide!

TESTIMONIALS:

"One of today's finest comedians. John Poveromo is not only as good as they come today, he is better."
- Trainwreck'd Society

"John Poveromo's cutting edge, quick witted sarcasm is hysterical and it's fun to watch his playfulness with the audience as he drives home specific points with his spot on punchlines. In a world full of bland, he is a refreshing shot of young vibrant adrenaline that goes straight to your funny bone! This kid's got the goods!!"
- Joey Kola (Actor & Comedian)

"Superb writing combined with the kind of relaxed presence behind the microphone that puts an audience at ease, Poveromo delivers on a brand of funny that builds within the set, transforming external laughter into internal contemplation that lasts well after you leave the club."
- TrunkSpace Magazine

"With an incredible ability to entertain an audience through his stand-up and engage people with his wit in his writing and illustrations, John Poveromo is entertainment."
- Jessica Glassberg (Writer, Producer, Comedian)

ABOUT DYSTOPIA TONIGHT:

Dystopia Tonight With John Poveromo: Hosted by nationally touring comedian John Poveromo, Dystopia Tonight was born out of the Covid-19 Pandemic to give people a light-hearted break from the absurdity of the world by bringing together artists, comedians, musicians, and more in engaging and hilarious conversations. Now with 200+ funny and fascinating episodes to thousands of listeners nationwide, Dystopia Tonight also features live performances, a look at hot topics in the news, fundraising events, and more.

John interviews a carefully curated mix of musicians, comedians, scientists, and the underdogs responsible for some of the biggest pop-culture sensations who often have the best stories, but not always the spotlight. Everyone from the late Ed Asner and The Police's Stewart Copeland to legendary entertainers like Tommy Chong, Will Wheaton, Lewis Black have stopped by Dystopia Tonight. John expertly facilitates conversations across generations and genres because he believes that authentic connection – not clickbait and controversy – is the real path out of this dystopian nightmare.
